MOORES DISCUSSES HIS ACTION IN THE CONGRESS

REPRESENTATIVE IN REPLY TO ANONYMOUS CIRCULAR.

LITERACY TEST PROVISION

To the Editor of The News:
Sir—An anonymous slip is in circulation, apparently for the purpose of persuading Republican voters to scratch for the Democratic candidate for congress in this district, for one of the nominees of this district, for one of the nominees of the Democratic party for appellate judge and for a Democratic candidate for the legislature. I quote from it:
"Seventh congressional district, attention, your representative in congress, Merrill Moore, voted against the literacy test in the immigration bill. He voted for the juvenile court bill, as recorded on pages 776 and 708 of the Congressional Record, April 24, 1916. He also voted for the Indian appropriation bill. On this record we think he should be defeated for re-election."
Voted by Threes.
This statement would seem to call for explanation.
1. The literacy test against which I voted had been vetoed successfully by

Presidents Cleveland, Taft and Wilson for what appear to me as good reasons. For the reasons given by President Wilson in his veto of two years ago, I voted against the literacy test. The bill passed notwithstanding my vote and was signed by President Wilson at the last session. Having seen carefully preserved in the statehouse at Trenton, N. J. the will of my immigrant ancestor, Matthew Moore, of Woodbridge, who came from England a child in 1638 and died 1682; and who made his mark in signing his will, I was unwilling to deny to others advantages I had myself profited by.
2. The juvenile court bill referred to was one applicable to the District of Columbia, where the existing law was weak and unsatisfactory. The only controversy in the house was as to whether race segregation should be compelled in this court. The solid south held out for a Jim Crow court. Every member from Indiana, excepting Adam and Cullip, voted against segregation of colored citizens in that court, and generally only the southern members voted for it. On the passage of the bill I voted for it, as did every member from Indiana, who was present; and the President approved the bill. Segregation was defeated by 197 to 112. The bill passed 220 to 85.

Proposal Was Defeated.
3. Every Republican in the house voted against immediate independence in the Philippines and they were joined by twenty-eight Democrats, led by such men as Arthur Allen, of Cincinnati; Murray Hubert, of New York, and Richard Olney, Jr., of Massachusetts. The proposition was defeated; but, with independence out, the Philippines bill passed the house by an unanimous vote. I voted for it.

Wilson Indorses Schlosser for Congress

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON
SHADOW LAW,
October 24, 1916

My dear Mr. Schlosser:
May I not express my interest in your nomination for Congress and my sincere hope that a Democrat may be returned from your district rather than the present incumbent who often joined with his colleagues to do everything possible to tie my hands?
Cordially and sincerely yours,
Woodrow Wilson

DEMOCRATS PARADE AND VICE-PRESIDENT SPEAKS

THOUSANDS AT FT. WAYNE LISTEN TO MARSHALL.

APPEAL TO PROGRESSIVES

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
FT. WAYNE, Ind., November 6.—The closing rally of the campaign was in honor of Thomas R. Marshall, Vice-President, who was greeted with a crowd that packed the Palace theater Saturday night and led to an overflow meeting in the rotunda of the courthouse. The speaking was preceded by a street demonstration that filled the streets to overflowing. The parade included hundreds of decorated automobiles and several hundred men on horseback. Many bands and drum corps enlivened the march as the procession passed through an embankment of red fire. In the parade were many party workers and voters from Dekalb and Noble and Whitley counties.
The Vice-President and Mrs. Marshall arrived in the city in the afternoon, and from 4 o'clock until the dinner hour they held a reception at the Anthony hotel. At the Palace theater, Harry Hadden, who was defeated for the Democratic nomination for congress by Cyrus Cline, the incumbent, and who is being groomed for the nomination two years hence, presided. He spoke in eulogistic terms of the Vice-President in presenting him, and the audience gave the speaker a rousing reception. The speech was chiefly a defense of the administration of President Wilson.

Offered to Baptize Progressives.
"Four years ago," said Mr. Marshall, "the Progressive Republicans formed a party of their own. They said the leaders of the Republican party were crooked, but the same men who controlled the Republican party are controlling it now. If there was ever a time when the Progressive Republicans should vote the Democratic ticket, that time is now, and if there is any one here who wants to come forward, tell him come. I will baptize him in the church of the Democratic party."
Discussing the Adamson wage law, the Vice-President said: "Our friends on the other side say that we yielded to force. I say we did not, but if the special interests of this country can force an infamous law like the Payne-Aldrich tariff law down the throats of a Republican congress, is there anything wrong with a few laboring men going to a Democratic congress and forcing a law like the eight-hour law down its throat?"

"Don't Let Hughes Bluff You."
In reply to criticism of Wilson's policies, Mr. Marshall said: "Don't let Mr. Hughes bluff you into voting for him. Go to the polls and vote your principles—that is, Americanism. A man who has not voted for six years ought not to criticize any one or attempt to tell another what Americanism is. Theodore objects to Mr. Wilson because President Wilson is not, but if Mr. Hughes is elected Theodore will get ready and on the 5th of March start with his rough riders for Berlin via Mexico. That would be the last hope of humanity and would create chaos throughout the universe. You must be patient and patriotic in the hope that we may lead all nations to a permanent settlement and permanent peace."

KERN SPEAKS AT BROOKVILLE

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
BROOKVILLE, Ind., November 4.—Senator John W. Kern and Judge Lawrence W. Zyberger of Pennsylvania closed the campaign here Saturday for the Democratic ticket. Kern's voice was very loud, and he could speak only for a short time. Kern has closed the campaign in Brookville on Saturday before Saturday morning for more than twenty-five years.

Taggart and Orblison at Franklin

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
FRANKLIN, Ind., November 5.—Thomas Taggart and C. J. Orblison, both of Indianapolis, addressed 1,000 democrats from Johnson county in the opera house in this city Saturday afternoon. Senator Taggart reviewed the administration of President Wilson, and said that while the Republicans had criticized all measures that have been passed during this administration, they have refused to present anything equally as good or better. In closing he said: "If you had a man in your administration who conducted your business economically and efficiently, would you hire him over again, or would you hire a man of whom you knew nothing? If you would have the conditions of peace and prosperity continue which have prevailed during the present administration Mr. Wilson must be re-elected."

Say Taggart Kept Them Out of the Dixie Highway

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
COLUMBUS, Ind., November 5.—A Republican drive against Thomas Taggart, being made throughout Bartholomew county with the slogan: "Thank God for Taggart. He kept us out of the Dixie highway." Taggart and Carl G. Fisher were the Dixie highway commissioners from Indiana. Fisher favored the route that would come from Indianapolis through Franklin, Columbus and Seymour. A local organization was formed to bring the highway this way, and representatives were sent to the meeting when the route was selected. It was soon seen that Taggart would have the greatest amount of influence of any one coming out, and his desire to route the highway through Orange county lost it to Bartholomew county.

STATE POLITICAL NOTES

REDFORD—The Republicans closed their campaign in Lawrence county Saturday, with a big rally and street parade, and a speech by Taylor, of Indianapolis.
MICHIGAN—The Democrats closed the campaign here Saturday night with a big rally. Representative W. E. Cox spoke.
WINCHESTER—James P. Goodrich, Republican candidate for Governor, addressed the campaign Monday evening with an address in the city hall.
SHELBYVILLE—Shelby county Republicans, offering odds of 10 to 7 on Hughes, were unable to get any better here Saturday night by county Republicans say they will carry the county ticket for the first time in twenty-five years.
LAFAYETTE—The banner Republican rally in the campaign was held Saturday night at the Victoria theater. Will R. Wood, candidate for the congress, spoke for the Democrats. There were 1,000 persons present. R. P. Hammond presided. Mr. Wood made a strong appeal for the election of the Republican national and state tickets.
EVANSVILLE—The Democrats of Vanderburg county closed the campaign Saturday night with one of the largest parades ever seen in the city. All of the counties in the First district were represented. Dr. Thomas Green spoke from the steps of the courthouse to 2,500 people. J. Hampton Lewis, United States senator from Illinois, was unable to come.
ANDERSON—At the twenty-nine voting places in Anderson township, including the city, committees of from two to five members of the Anderson Women's Franchise League will hand league literature to voters Tuesday when they are at the polls. Mrs. Charles D. Shipley is chairman of the committee making the assignments of Franchise League members.

FERRIS HAUTE—Rocco Fertich, of Indianapolis, spoke before the Good Government League at the Central Christian church Sunday afternoon on "The New-way of Separating National and Local Issues in the Coming Election." Mr. Fertich has been campaigning the state for President Wilson, but he spoke here in behalf of the candidates on the Republican county ticket.
COVINGTON—John A. Whit, Democratic county chairman, has issued a circular offering a $100 reward for the apprehension and conviction of any one who perpetrates election frauds at the election Tuesday. I have been reliably informed that certain parties are preparing to commit gross frauds on behalf of the Republican ticket in Fountain county. A United States marshal will be appointed for this county, and a deputy will be in every township to arrest offenders.
BRIAR—Laboring men here are objecting because Charles Fox, president of the State Federation of Labor, injected politics into a meeting called Sunday for the benefit of striking clay workers. President Walker, of the Illinois Federation spoke, and he was followed by Fox, who made a Democratic speech, concluding Godfrey Everett Sanders, candidate for congress and other Republican candidates. Many Republican laboring men belied the meeting.

"Just like the old home apple butter!"

The old home apple taste! What memories it recalls to these two old folks! Memories of the vine-covered old homestead, with its moss-covered stone well, and its sweet-scented apple orchard, laden in fall with big, luscious, rosy-cheeked apples.

The old home apple butter! Rich and golden-brown, was anything ever so delectable, so wholly palate-pleasing? It was the ambrosia of the autumn.

The old home apple butter! How often have you just "hankered" for its rare goodness? How many times have modern apple butters disappointed you when you sought it? The minute you taste Lippincott Apple Butter you'll realize you have found the old home taste at last. And no wonder! Just consider how Lippincott Apple Butter is made—

We follow a famous recipe used on an old New England homestead for over fifty years. We use nothing but the choicest and tarest of apples, the most fragrant of spices, and the purest of white granulated sugar!

And we make it in a bright, spotless factory-kitchen where those good old-fashioned standards of honesty and purity prevail, amid clean, wholesome surroundings, by clean, wholesome people.

Order a trial jar now—enjoy again the old home taste you've hankered for. 15c and 25c jars at all good grocers.

DR. THEODOR DUMBA RETIRED AT OWN REQUEST

THANKED BY EMPEROR FOR SERVICE TO AUSTRIA.

WAS AMBASSADOR TO U. S.

(Special to The Indianapolis News)
VIENNA (via London), November 6.—Dr. Theodor Constantin Dumba, former Austrian ambassador to the United States, at his own request, has been retired from the diplomatic service by the emperor. The announcement of the retirement of Dr. Dumba includes unusual recognition of Dr. Dumba's excellent services covering a long period of years.
Dr. Dumba was ambassador of Austria-Hungary at Washington from May 24, 1914, until September, 1915. In the summer of 1915 he made himself unacceptable to the United States government when he attempted to transmit through James F. J. Archibald, an American newspaper correspondent, a report to the Austro-Hungarian foreign office, which disclosed the ambassador's participation in plans to cripple American munition plants by strikes. British agents found the proof on Archibald when he arrived at Falmouth. The Washington government canceled Archibald's passports and denied the recall of the Austrian representative. A proposal that Dr. Dumba quit the United States on leave of absence was not regarded as satisfactory, and President Wilson insisted on his recall. Dr. Dumba left the United States on October 5 for Vienna, by way of Rotterdam.

The Reason

KRE-MO Sterilized RICE
can be prepared in ten minutes is because of the whole rice grains have been reduced to a granulated form by a steel cutting process. All foreign matter, dirt and flour extracted, thereby, leaving these small particles all cleaned and ready to prepare in a few minutes.

Serving KRE-MO in granulated form makes it the most economical food and brings out the full richness of the rice and gives it that Smooth Creamy Flavor.
